

Jill Blutt

...is a Brooklyn-based singer, songwriter, producer, and overall really nice, cool and chill person. Born and raised in New York City, Jill enjoys the simple pleasures in life such as late nights and loud music. A blend of atmospheric dreampop elements with a healthy dose of electronic muck and mire, Jill's music is the perfect soundtrack for a sleepless sunrise, drawing inspiration from a deep love of 90s alternative and dance music and evoking comparisons to artists like Caroline Polachek, Imogen Heap, and Sneaker Pimps. Jill's last single, Nice2MeetU, amassed 15k streams on Spotify alone and spent two weeks on Spotify's own Fresh Finds and Fresh Finds Indie playlists.
